PAHO AWARD FOR ADMINISTRATION, 2002

The Award Committee of the PAHO Award for Administration, 2002, made up of representatives of Canada, Honduras, and Uruguay, met on Wednesday 26 June during the 130th Session of the Executive Committee. After examining the documentation on the candidates nominated by the Member States, the Committee decided to confer the PAHO Award for Administration, 2002 on Dr. Hugo Mendoza, of the Dominican Republic, for his valuable contribution to the improvement of the maternal and child health situation in his country, through the introduction of the public health approach in pediatric care and teaching, and his pioneering efforts in public health research.

The Executive Committee considered the report of the Award Committee and adopted the following resolution (CE130.R16):

THE 130th SESSION OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,

Having examined the report of the Award Committee of the PAHO Award for Administration, 2002 (Document CE130/6, Add. I); and

Bearing in mind the provisions of the procedures and guidelines for conferring the PAHO Award for Administration, as approved by the 18th Pan American Sanitary Conference (1970) and amended by the 24th Pan American Sanitary Conference (1994) and the 124th Session of the Executive Committee (1999),
